1997-1998
Annual Report

The Commission was established on July 1, 1991, under the National Health Insurance Act (RA 7805). Its primary objective is to ensure that all Filipinos have access to quality health care through a system of health insurance. The Commission has since then been working towards the implementation of the Act, which aims to provide a comprehensive health insurance system for all Filipinos.

The Commission's mandate is to collect premiums from employers and employees, and to use these funds to provide health care services to the insured. It also has the authority to regulate the health insurance industry and to ensure that the interests of the insured are protected.

The Commission has been successful in its efforts to implement the Act. It has established a network of health insurance companies and has been able to collect premiums from a large number of employers and employees. It has also been able to provide health care services to a significant number of insured individuals.
